

Securities Trading Policy

Table of Contents

1	Introduction.....	3
2	Definitions and interpretation.....	4
3	What securities are covered by this Policy.....	4
4	Standards.....	5
5	Prohibition on insider trading.....	5
6	Guidelines for trading in securities.....	7
7	ASX notification by Directors.....	13
8	Employment and monitoring.....	13
9	Compliance.....	13
10	Review.....	13
11	Policy responsibility	14
12	Disclosure of Policy.....	14

1. Introduction

Background and purpose

The Company is committed to complying with the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules to create a transparent market in the trading of its securities on the ASX.

ASX Listing Rule 12.9 requires the Company, as a listed entity, to have a trading policy that restricts its Key management personnel from trading in its securities during certain closed periods.

The Company has determined that its Key management personnel are its Directors, Global CFO, CEO, Senior Executives, People Leaders and any employee (whether full-time, part-time or casual) having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling, directly or indirectly, the activities of the Company (Key Management Personnel).

Directors and employees are encouraged to hold shares in the Company. It is important however, that care is taken in the timing of any dealing in the Company's securities to avoid "insider trading".

The purpose of this Policy is to ensure that:

- a) Key management personnel and all other employees of the Company; and
- b) Key management personnel and all other employees of each of the Company's related bodies corporate, (Restricted Persons) are aware of the legal restrictions on trading securities, while such a Restricted Person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information concerning the Company. If a Restricted Person is uncertain of the status of unpublished information, he or she should discuss it with the Chair before engaging in any trade in the Company's securities.

Additionally, the objectives of this Policy are to:

- a) minimise the risk of Restricted Persons contravening the laws against insider trading;
- b) minimise the risk of the appearance of insider trading and the significant reputational damage that may cause;
- c) ensure the Company is able to meet its reporting obligations under the ASX Listing Rules; and
- d) increase transparency with respect to trading in the Company's securities by Restricted Persons.

To achieve these objectives, Restricted Persons should consider this Policy to be binding on them in the absence of a specific exemption by the Board.

Who does this Policy apply to?

This Policy applies to all Restricted Persons.

It is important to remember that although this Policy only applies to Restricted Persons, the insider trading prohibitions set out in the Corporations Act apply to all persons (including family members of Restricted Persons).

If you are in any doubt as to how this Policy may affect you, you should seek assistance from the Company Secretary before trading.

2. Definitions and interpretation

Definitions

General terms and abbreviations used in this Policy have the following meaning:

ASX	means ASX Limited ACN 008 624 691 or the securities market operated by ASX Limited, as the case may be.
ASX Listing Rules	means the listing rules of the ASX, as amended from time to time.
Audit and Risk Committee	means the audit and risk committee established by the Board.
Board	means the board of Directors of the Company.
CEO	means chief executive officer of the Company.
Chair	means the chair of the Company.
Company	means MedAdvisor Limited ACN 145 327 617.
Company Secretary	mean the company secretary of the Company.
Corporations Act	means the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).
Corporations Regulations	means the Corporations Regulations 2001 (Cth).
Director	means a director of Company.
Key management personnel	has the meaning given in paragraph 1.1,
Policy	means this "Share Trading Policy".
Restricted Person	has the meaning given in paragraph 1.1,
Senior Executives	General Manager – USA, UK and Australia Chief Operating Officer Executive General Management- Sales & Marketing, Australia UK & US Global VP Human Resources CEO's of all divisions
Trading Window	has the meaning given in paragraph 6.1.

3. What securities are covered by this Policy?

This Policy applies to both the issue of new securities of the Company and its related bodies corporate and the sale and purchase of any securities issued in the Company and its related bodies corporate from time to time.

The definition of "securities" in the Corporations Act is very broad. Securities are defined to include:

- a) debentures, stocks or bonds issued, or proposed to be issued, by a government;
- b) shares in, or debentures of, a body; and
- c) units of such shares.

For the purposes of this Policy, the term "securities" also extends to financial products issued or created over or in respect of securities issued by the Company (for example, warrants and other derivative products), whether the financial products are created by the Company or by third parties.

4. Standards

All Restricted Persons should ensure that all transactions in the Company's securities comply with:

- a) the Corporations Act and Corporations Regulations (including, without limitation, the insider trading provisions); and
- b) the ASX Listing Rules (including, without limitation, the continuous disclosure requirements in ASX Listing Rule 3.1 and the disclosure of Directors' interests in accordance with ASX Listing Rule 3.19A).

5. Prohibition on insider trading

Insider trading prohibition

The Company's shares are listed on the ASX. Section 1043A (of Part 7.10, Division 3) of the Corporations Act makes it an offence for a person in possession of information that is not generally available but which, if generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities to:

- apply for, acquire or dispose of, or enter into an agreement to do any of these things) the Company's securities; or
- procure another person to trade in the Company's securities, (each a 'dealing in the Company's securities').

The insider trading prohibition in section 1043A of the Corporations Act is MANDATORY and not a matter of guidance.

It does not matter how the person comes to have the inside information – for example, whether the person learns it in the course of carrying out that person's responsibilities, in passing in the corridor, in the lift or at a social occasion.

It is an offence to communicate the information to another person with the knowledge that the person could deal in the Company's securities. Accordingly, the prohibition on insider trading cannot be avoided by a person procuring or arranging for another person to deal on his or her behalf.

What is "price sensitive information"

Price sensitive information means information relating to the Company or the Company's subsidiaries that would, if the information were publicly known, be likely to:

- a) have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities; or
- b) influence persons who commonly invest in securities in deciding whether or not to buy or sell the Company's securities.

Examples of "price-sensitive information"

Examples of possible price-sensitive information include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a) a material acquisition, joint venture, realisation or disposal of assets;
- b) a threat of material litigation against the Company;
- c) the Company's sales and profit results materially exceeding or falling short of the market's expectations or the previously announced guidance by the Company;
- d) a material change in debt, liquidity or cash flow;
- e) a significant new development proposal (ie. A new product or technology);

- f) the granting or loss of a major contract;
- g) a management or business restructuring proposal;
- h) a change in the capital structure, such as a capital return or the buy back of a financial product;
- i) a payment of dividends or a share issue;
- j) a change to the Board or significant changes in senior management;
- k) the entering into of an agreement or option to acquire an interest in an asset or business, or to enter into a joint venture or other arrangement in relation to an asset or business; and
- l) any information required to be announced to the market pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 3.1 (the Continuous Disclosure Rule) which is yet to be released to the market.

When is the information “generally available”?

Information is generally available if:

- a) it consists of a readily observable matter;
- b) it has been made known in a manner likely to bring the information to the attention of people who commonly invest in securities of a kind whose price or value might be affected by the information, and, since it was made known, a reasonable period for it to be disseminated among such persons has elapsed;
- c) it is derived from information which has been made public; or
- d) it consists of observations, deductions, conclusions or inferences made or drawn from other generally available information.

Dealing through third parties

The insider trading prohibition extends to dealings by individuals through nominees, agents or other associates, such as family members, family trusts and family companies.

- 6 Consequences for breach of the insider trading prohibition
 - a) Breach of the insider trading prohibition by a Restricted Person or a Restricted Person’s family member could expose the Restricted Person to criminal and civil liability including fines and imprisonment.
 - b) Significantly, a breach of the insider trading prohibition could result in a Restricted Person or a Restricted Person’s family member being sued by another party or the Company for any loss suffered as a result of insider trading.
 - c) Breach of insider trading laws or this Policy will also be regarded by the Company as serious misconduct which may lead to disciplinary action and/or dismissal.
 - 7 Source of information is irrelevant
 - a) Trading is prohibited at any time if the person possesses inside information.
 - b) It does not matter how or where the person obtains the information and it does not have to be obtained from the Company to constitute inside information. This means that section 1043A of the Corporations Act will apply to any Restricted Person who acquires inside information in relation to the Company’s securities, regardless of capacity. In such circumstances, the Restricted Person is prohibited from dealing in the Company’s securities.
3. Employee incentive scheme

- a) The prohibition on trading in the Company's securities does not apply to acquisitions of shares or options by employees of the Company made under an employee share or option scheme or performance rights plan, nor does it apply to the acquisition of shares as a result of the exercise of options under an employee option scheme.
- b) The prohibition does, however, apply to the sale of shares acquired under an employee share scheme or performance rights plan and also to the sale of shares acquired following the exercise of an option or performance right granted under an employee option scheme or performance rights plan.

Dealing in shares of other companies

If a Restricted Person has "price sensitive information" relating to a company other than the Company which is not "generally available", the same insider trading rules outlined above apply to buying and selling securities in that company.

In the course of performing duties as an employee of the Company, Restricted Persons may obtain price sensitive information relating to another company in a variety of circumstances. Examples include, but are not limited to the following:

- another company may provide price sensitive information about itself to the Company in the course of a proposed transaction;
- another company with whom the Company is dealing may provide price sensitive information about a third company; or
- information concerning the Company or actions which may be taken by the Company (i.e. a planned transaction or strategic change) could reasonably have an effect on a third party company.

Apart from the application of the insider trading rules to securities in other companies, Restricted Persons are also bound by a duty of confidentiality in relation to information in respect of third parties obtained in the course of their employment with the Company.

6. Guidelines for trading in securities

No Dealing outside available Trading Windows

"A Restricted Person must not deal in the Company's securities, or procure any other person to do so, at any time that is not during an available Trading Window.

Generally, each of the following periods is a Trading Window:

- 30 day period commencing at 10.00am (Melbourne time) on the day after the release of the Company's half year results announcement to the ASX;
- a 30 day period commencing at 10.00am (Melbourne time) on the day after the release of the Company's annual results announcement to the ASX;
- a 30 day period commencing at 10.00am (Melbourne time) on the day after the Company's Annual General Meeting; and
- any additional period designated by the Board (or its delegate) from time to time (for example, during a period of enhanced disclosure).

All periods that are not during a Trading Window are 'closed periods' for the purposes of the ASX Listing Rules, during which Restricted Persons are prohibited from dealing in the Company's securities, subject to the exceptions in paragraph 6.10.

Availability of Trading Windows

The availability of any Trading Window may be varied, suspended or withdrawn by the Board (or its delegate) at any time (and either generally or in any particular case or cases).

The Company will give Restricted Persons notice of the opening of any available Trading Window. This notice will typically be given by email from the Company Secretary (or their delegate).

Restricted Persons may not assume that a Trading Window is available, even after a relevant results announcement or the Company's Annual General Meeting. A Trading Window may only be taken to be available where the Company:

- has notified Restricted Persons of the opening of the Trading Window; and
- has not notified Restricted Persons of the closing, suspension or withdrawal of the Trading Window.

Notification prior to dealing during a Trading Window

Before dealing in any Company securities during a Trading Window, Key management personnel must give, or cause to be given, notice of the proposed dealing to:

Dealing By	Clearance Given By
Director	Chair of the Board
Chair of the Board	Chair of the Audit & Risk Committee and Chair of People, Remuneration & Nomination Committee
CEO	Chair of the Board
Other Person	CEO and CFO & Company Secretary

In the Company Secretary's absence notices required to be given to the Company Secretary must be given to the CEO.

The notice must:

- be given at least one business day prior to the proposed dealing taking place;
- be in writing and be given by email or hand;
- provide details of the proposed dealing (including the nature of the dealing, whether it involves an on-market or off-market transaction and the number and type of Company securities that are proposed to be the subject of the dealing);
- include a statement confirming that the Key management personnel is not in possession of any price-sensitive information in relation to the Company securities; and
- be provided in any form or manner, and contain any additional information or confirmations, as may be determined by the Board from time to time.

Any dealing notified under this paragraph may only be commenced within five business days after the date of notification. For the avoidance of doubt, in the case of an on-market trade, this requires execution (but not settlement) of the trade to occur within that period.

The requirement to give notification under this paragraph is intended as a compliance monitoring function only. Receipt, and any acknowledgement of or response to, any such notification is not an endorsement, approval or recommendation of the proposed dealing. Key management personnel remain responsible for their own investment decisions and compliance with the insider trading provisions of the Corporations Act and this policy.

For the avoidance of doubt, Restricted Persons that are not Key management personnel are not required to provide notice prior to dealing in the Company's securities during a Trading Window. The Board may require a Restricted Person that is not a Key management personnel to provide notice at any time (either generally or in any particular case or cases).

Trading in derivatives

Restricted Persons must not trade in any derivative products issued by the Company.

Derivative products issued by the Company over its securities include warrants, options and contracts for difference.

Short term trading

Despite anything to the contrary in this Policy, Restricted Persons must not engage in short term trading of any of the Company's securities. An example of this would be to purchase the Company's shares with an intention to sell them within a 12 month period.

Short selling

Restricted Persons must not engage in short selling of the Company's securities.

Hedging transactions

Restricted Persons must not enter into an arrangement that would have the effect of limiting their exposure to risk relating to either unvested remuneration, or vested remuneration which remains subject to a holding lock.

Margin lending and other secured financing arrangements

Restricted Persons must not enter into any margin lending or other secured financing arrangements in respect of the Company's securities.

Exceptions

A Restricted Person may trade in the Company's securities outside of a Trading Window if that trading falls within one of the following categories:

- an acquisition of ordinary shares in the Company which results from conversion of securities which carry a right of conversion to ordinary shares;
- an acquisition of the Company's securities under a bonus issue made to all holders of securities of the same class;
- an acquisition of the Company's securities under a dividend reinvestment or top-up plan that is available to all holders or securities of the same class;
- a transfer of the Company's securities between a member of Key management personnel and someone closely related to that member (such as a spouse, child, family company or family trust) or by a member of Key management personnel to his or her superannuation fund, in respect of which prior written clearance has been provided in accordance with the procedures set out in this Policy;
- a disposal of securities arising from the acceptance of a takeover offer, scheme of arrangement or equal access buy-back;

- a disposal of rights acquired under a pro rata issue;
- an acquisition of securities under a pro rata issue;
- an investment in, or trading in units of, a fund or other scheme (other than a scheme only investing in the Company's securities) where the assets of the fund or other scheme are invested at the discretion of a third party;
- where the Restricted Person is a trustee, trading in the Company's securities by that trust provided that the Restricted Person is not a beneficiary of the trust and any decision to trade outside of a Trading Window is taken by the other trustees or by the investment managers independently of the Restricted Person;
- an undertaking to accept, or the acceptance of, a takeover offer;
- trading under an offer or invitation made to all or most of the Company's members, such as a rights issue, a security purchase plan, a dividend or distribution reinvestment plan or an equal access buy-back, where the plan that determines the timing and structure of the offer has been approved by the Board. This includes decisions relating to whether or not to take up the entitlements, the take-up by any underwriter under a renounceable or non-renounceable pro rata issue and the sale of entitlements required to provide for the take up of the balance of entitlement under a renounceable pro rata issue;
- a disposal of the Company's securities that is the result of a secured lender or financier exercising their rights under a margin lending or other secured financing arrangement permitted by this Policy;
- an acquisition of securities under an employee incentive scheme;
- where the Company has an employee incentive scheme with a member of Key management personnel as a trustee of the scheme, an acquisition of securities by that Key management personnel in his or her capacity as a trustee of the scheme;
- an exercise (but not the sale of the Company's securities following exercise) of an option or a right granted under a Company employee incentive plan, or the conversion of a convertible security, where the final date for the exercise of the option or right, or the conversion of the security, falls outside of a Trading Window and the Company has been in an exceptionally long prohibited period or the Company has had a number of consecutive 'closed periods' and the Restricted Person could not reasonably have been expected to exercise it at the time when free to do so; or
- trading under a non-discretionary trading plan for which prior written clearance has been provided in accordance with procedures set out in this Policy and where:
 - A. the Restricted Person did not enter into the plan or amend the plan outside of a Trading Window;
 - B. the plan does not permit the Restricted Person to exercise any influence or discretion over how, when, or whether to trade; and
 - C. this Policy does not allow a Restricted Person to cancel any such trading plan, or to cancel or otherwise vary the terms of his or her participation in the trading plan outside of a Trading Window other than in exceptional circumstances; and the obtaining by a Director of a share qualification.

In respect of any share or option plans adopted by the Company, it should be noted that it is not permissible to provide the exercise price of options by selling the shares acquired on the exercise of the options unless the sale of those shares occurs during a Trading Window. Were this to occur at a time when the person possessed inside information, the sale of the Company's securities would be a breach of insider trading laws, even though the person's decision to sell was not influenced by the inside information that the person possessed and the person may not have made a profit on the sale.

Where the Company's securities are provided to a lender as security by way of mortgage or charge, a sale that occurs under that mortgage or charge as a consequence of default would not breach insider trading laws.

Notwithstanding the above, under insider trading laws, a Restricted Person who possesses inside information may be prohibited from trading even where the trading falls within any of the exceptions in paragraph 6.9 of this Policy.

Notification of periods when Restricted Persons can trade

The Company Secretary will endeavour to notify Restricted Persons of the times when they are permitted to buy or sell the Company's securities as set out in paragraph 6.2.

Trading with permission

A Restricted Person may trade in the Company's securities outside of a Trading Window if that person obtains written consent to do so in accordance with paragraph 6.9 of this Policy.

Procedure for obtaining written consent to trade

A Restricted Person who wishes to trade in the Company's securities outside of a Trading Window (Applicant) must obtain the prior written consent (which may be provided by way of an email) of:

- the Chair, and any one of the CEO, the CFO; and the Company Secretary; or
- where the Chair is the Applicant, any two of an Independent Director other than the Chair, the CEO the CFO; and the Company Secretary;
- the CEO, CFO or Company Secretary cannot provide consent in accordance with this paragraph in the case where they are the Applicant. (collectively, the Decision Maker(s)).

As part of such application, an Applicant must give the Decision Maker(s) a written undertaking that the Applicant is not in possession of any inside information.

The Decision Maker(s) may only provide written permission to trade in the Company's securities where:

- the proposed trading is outside of a Trading Window, the Restricted Person is in severe financial hardship or where other exceptional circumstances exist (see paragraphs 6.9); and
- in any circumstance, the Decision Maker(s) is satisfied that there is no inside information which has not been disclosed to the ASX.

A Restricted Person may be in severe financial hardship if he or she has a pressing financial commitment that cannot be satisfied other than by selling some or all of his or her securities in the Company.

In the interests of an expedient and informed determination by the Decision Maker(s), any application for an exemption allowing the sale of the Company's securities outside of a Trading Window based on financial hardship must be made in writing and be accompanied by copies of relevant supporting documentation, including contact details of the person's accountant, bank and other such independent institutions. Any exemption, if issued, will be in writing and will contain a specified time period during which the sale of securities can be made.

Exceptional circumstances may apply to the disposal of the Company's securities by a Restricted Person if the person is required by a court order, a court enforceable undertaking (for example in a bona fide family settlement, to transfer or sell securities of the Company) or there is some other overriding legal or regulatory requirement to do so. Any application for an exemption allowing the sale of the Company's securities outside of a Trading Window based on exceptional circumstances must be made in writing and be accompanied by relevant court and/or supporting legal documentation. Any exemption, if issued, will be in writing and will contain a specified time period during which the sale of securities can be made.

An Applicant seeking clearance to trade must satisfy the Decision Maker(s) that he or she is in severe financial hardship or that their circumstances are otherwise exceptional and that the proposed sale or disposal of the relevant Company securities is the only reasonable course of action available.

Determination as to whether the Applicant is in severe financial hardship or whether a particular set of circumstances exist may only be made by the Decision Maker(s).

Any permission provided under this paragraph 6.11 must be obtained by the Applicant not less than two trading days before the proposed trading.

Copies of written approvals must be forwarded to the Company Secretary prior to the approved purchase or sale transaction.

A clearance to trade can be given or refused by the Company in its absolute discretion. The Company's decision to refuse clearance is final and binding on the person seeking clearance.

A clearance to trade can be withdrawn if new information comes to light or there is a change in circumstances.

If clearance to trade is refused, the person seeking the clearance must keep the information relating to the refusal (including the refusal itself) confidential and not disclose it to anyone.

Sales of securities

Restricted Persons need to be mindful of the market perception associated with any sale of the Company's securities and possibly the ability of the market to absorb the volume of shares being sold. With this in mind, the management of the sale of any significant volume of the Company's securities (i.e. a volume that would represent a volume in excess of 10% of the total securities held by the seller prior to the sale, or a volume to be sold that would be in excess of 10% of the average daily traded volume of the shares of the Company on the ASX for the preceding 20 trading days) by a Restricted Person must be discussed with the Board prior to the execution of any sale. These discussions must be documented in the form of a file note, to be retained by the Company Secretary.

7. ASX notification by Directors

Directors are required to notify the Chair and the ASX of any dealing in the Company's securities (either personally or through a third party) which results in a change in the relevant interests of the Director in securities in the Company.

While the Corporations Act requires Directors to notify the ASX of any changes to their holdings within 14 days (or if also a substantial shareholder as early as by 9.30am on the next trading day), the Company is required under the ASX Listing Rules to notify the ASX:

- of the initial holding of each Director upon appointment and such subsequent dealings within five business days of the change; and
- whether the dealing occurred outside of a Trading Window and if so, whether written clearance was obtained and on what date it was obtained.

To enable the Company to comply with these requirements, each Director must enter into a letter agreement with the Company in a form consistent with the pro forma agreement provided on appointment. Directors must furnish the relevant information as soon as reasonably possible and in any event no later than three business days after the date of appointment or change, to the Company Secretary who will facilitate the transmission of these notifications to the ASX. Notifications will also be tabled before the Board.

8. Employment and monitoring

- To promote understanding of the insider trading prohibition and related Corporations Act provisions and this Policy, a copy of this Policy will be distributed to all Restricted Persons (present and future) and will be available on the Company's website.
- The induction procedures for new Restricted Persons must require that a copy of this document be provided to each new Restricted Person.

9. Compliance

- Compliance with the rules set out in this Policy is mandatory and is a condition of the employment of each Restricted Person by the Company. Infringement of the insider trading provisions can attract a substantial monetary penalty, imprisonment or both in addition to loss of employment.
- Any Restricted Person who does not comply with this Policy will be considered to have engaged in serious misconduct which may result in the termination of their engagement by the Company.
- Ultimate discretion rests with the Chair in respect of granting a waiver to the requirements of this Policy to allow Restricted Persons to trade in the shares of the Company, provided that to do so would not be illegal. The Chair's decision to refuse a waiver is final and binding.

10. Review

This Policy will be formally reviewed by the Board no less than every 2 years.